☞ A Republican friend of ours said yesterday that "the employment of the army of the United States, the right to suspend the habeas corpus, the authority to proclaim martial law, all of which is vested in the President by the late Congressional act to establish a dictatorship, in order to suppress the Ku-Klux in the Southern States, was like a buffalo bull hunting a grasshopper on the Western plains."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

GEORGIA AFFAIRS.

Cotton most all in and gone in Griffin, says the Star. Frost. Corn looks pale. Garden truck all right.

The Rome Commercial reports a smash-up on the Selma Road four miles this side of Dalton. The State Road train and the Selma Road train got mixed. Nobody hurt.

The Gainesville Eagle seconds our motion to have a daily mail on the Air-Line Railroad between Atlanta and Gainesville. Corn 75 cents. New buildings going up. Gillsville has had a wild cat four feet long.

The Griffin Georgian comes in bran new, starchy, fine dress. It shows its prosperity. Good luck to a good paper.

A writer in the Griffin Georgian suggests that if people will stop signing petitions for the pardon of bad criminals, Governor Bullock will do less abuse of the pardon power. There is some gum in the suggestion.

Suicide on the Cars.—On Monday morning last, on the Macon and Western Railroad, (down passenger train) between Coggin's and Collin's station, a gentleman suddenly drew his pistol from his pocket, placed the muzzle to his breast and fired, inflicting, it is thought, a mortal wound. A letter on his person dated at Rome, Ga., and addressed "from Thos. L. Cox to John Cox, gave the only clue to his identity, as he refused to answer any questions.—Griffin Georgian.

C. H. White takes Wadly's place as Griffin Agent of the Macon and Western Railroad.

The many rainy days which we have had for the past two weeks, have put farmers behind with their crops. If the seasons are propitious henceforth, the crops will, by no means, be materially injured. Most of the past week farmers say the soil has been in excellent order for plowing.—Sparta Times.

Hancock shows more corn planted than the most sanguine dared hope for—larger crops of wheat, oats and other small grain.

GEORGIA BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

ALL SORTS OF REPORTS—

PENFIELD—MERCER COLLEGE—VARIOUS RESOLUTIONS—BAPTISTS ORPHANS' HOME—THE COLORED PEOPLE—ADJOURNMENT.

CARTERSVILLE, April 24, 1871.

Religious exercises lead by Rev. C. H. Stillwell.

B. Thornton asked for the church at Hartwell for funds to complete its house of worship, and T. H. Murphy for the church at Senoia.

The Executive Committee were re-elected by acclamation, viz: Thomas Stocks, T. J. Burney, D. E. Butler, P. B. Robinson, W. G. Woodfin, J. E. Willett, J. R. Saunders.

T. J. Barney re-elected Treasurer by acclamation.

A resolution was unanimously adopted, that the Christian Index and Southwestern Baptist eminently deserves the patronage of the Baptists of Georgia.

Rev. R. W. Fuller made an earnest and eloquent appeal in behalf of the Index and Baptist.

Macon was unanimously selected as the next place of meeting.

A committee of one from each Association represented in the Convention to report the names of delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention, viz: W. H. Davis, G. A. Nunnally, M. J. Welborn, H. W. Cannon, D. G. Daniel, A. Chandler, B. F. Tharpe, A. W. Buford, H. F. Bucannan, E. Coalson, J. M. Wood, W. D. Horne, A. M. Marshall, T. H. Murphy, W. N. Chandoin, T. B. West, J. S. Dodd, T. J. Cumming, J. W. Pullen, A. C. Jackson.

The Committee on Nominations reported Dr. T. E. Skinner, of Columbus to preach the introductory sermon at the next Convention, Rev. F. H. Ivey, alternate; Rev. L. R. Gwaltney to preach the education sermon; Rev. G. A. Lofton, alternate.

The Committee on the state of Religion reported: "Religion is personal purity and relative benevolence, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." Your committee believe that in looking over the whole field covered by the Convention, a manifest improvement appears in the state of religion in our churches and among our people.

There are some neighborhoods, and perhaps some associations, which must be regarded as exceptions to this general statement. There is a more general supply of preaching, and fewer churches without pastors than existed two years ago. There have been many precious revivals and large additions to many of our churches during the past year. The sins of drunkenness and covetousness are diminishing in their blighting influences among our churches. Those whose business it is to travel extensively and urge the claims of religion upon the property of our brethren tell us there is a manifest improvement in the willingness to give, and especially with the younger members of our churches who have become active members since the war. Many of the associations have missionaries sustained in whole or in part by themselves.

The Domestic Mission Board is doing an important and necessary work by supplimenting the salaries of associational missionaries and pastors of weak churches in important towns.

Your committee believe that that there is a decided improvement in morals, and some improvement in reference to worldliness, but still there is a great demand for more personal purity. The lusts of the flesh, the lusts of the eye, and the pride of life are still writing Ichabod upon many communities and churches. Intemperance, dishonesty, falsehood and covetousness must be put away as crimes, and theater-going and balls as worldliness, which dries up the fountain of piety.

One of the saddest things, in our view, is what seems to us to be a fact that so few of our ministers are given wholly to the gospel; that so few have reached the Scriptural measure of consecration. Where a spiritual minded minister labors, it is found that morals improve, the church becomes purer, less selfish and worldly. If the ministers' piety be low, and his joy in God and his work feeble, then we shall find, generally, blight and desolation in all his fields of labor. "Like priest, like people." The minister must regard the state of piety in his field as to some extent the reflection of his own spiritual image. The neglect of pastoral work, especially that part of it which includes going from house to house for instruction and prayer, is owing, in a large degree, to a want of a full consecration to Christ—to a low state of ministerial piety. To the same source may be traced the jealousies and depreciations which sometimes tarnish the glory of the sacred brotherhood of God's ministers. We need, as ministers and churches, to be baptised in the Holy Ghost; to be annointed afresh from on high, that we may carry forward with conquering power the banner bearing the inscription:

GEORGIA FOR JESUS.

Remarks were made in support of the report by M. J. Welborn, E. W. Warren, T. H. Murphy, J. H. DeVotie, W. J. Hand, W. M. Verdery, G. A. Nunnally, S. Henderson, of Alabama; G. A. Lofton, B. F. Tharpe and N. M. Crawford.

The evil and corrupting influence of balls, theaters, card playing gambling in all its phases, drunkenness, liquor-selling, skating rinks and the worshippers of Mammon were elaborately discussed and deplored.

Report adopted.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the cause of truth requires a more frequent exposition and vindication, in our pulpit ministration, of the articles of our faith.

Resolved, That the evils of covetousness, and the duty of giving systematically and liberally to our benevolent enterprises, call for especial and persevering attention.

Resolved, That we reaffirm the principles asserted by the State Convention of our brethren held at Macon in 1866, in relation to the theater, the opera, the modern and card playing, to-wit: That we deem a voluntary participation in them to be inconsistent with a proper christian walk.

The special committee on the reports on the removal of Mercer University made a report.

R. L. McWhorter read a written statement relative to the proposition made by the Trustees of the University to the citizens of Penfield, contending that the citizens of Penfield had been misrepresented by the Trustees; that but one proposition had been made to them; that they filed the caveat in no captious spirit.

T. J. Burney, Chairman of the committee, substantiated his report relative to the citizens of Penfield, as correct.

The special committee on the reports of the Trustees of Mercer University and the Commission of Removal, in their report, approved the action of the Commission, and recommending their discharge; recommending the approval of the report of the Board of Trustees; that the Trustees retain control of the University property at Penfield until litigation is ended; that if litigation is withdrawn, the Trustees are instructed to inaugurate and sustain at Penfield a Normal or other High School. The last paragraph was amended to read as follows: That if litigation is withdrawn the Trustees are instructed to establish a school at Penfield, to be called Mercer High School; Provided no draft is made on the present funds of the University for this purpose.

The whole report was then adopted.

Rev. Dr. Dixon submitted a report on Education, which was adopted. The report urged united action on the part of the denomination to keep abreast with the progress of the age.

Rev. Dr. Tucker submitted the report of the Committee on Temperance, which was adopted.

The report urged that the question be viewed, not so much from the statistics of effects as from the word of God—not from a moral but a religious stand-point. Pastors were urged to preach temperance sermons.

The special committee on the report of the Executive Committee made a report, which was adopted. The report regretted the announcement by the Executive Committee, that they could not receive more beneficiaries at present, and urged that the committee throw open their doors to worthy young gentlemen as early as possible.

The committee to report the names of suitable persons for delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention reported the following names, which was adopted:

The committee were authorized to fill all vacancies from Georgia.

Rev. Dr. Skinner submitted a report on missions, which was adopted. It urged increased activity in extending the gospel, at home and abroad.

The committee on deceased ministers reported as having died since last convention, Rev. G. B. Bealer, at Madison; W. I. Harley, at Sparta, and A. T. Holmes, D. D., at Atlanta. Report adopted.

The finance committee reported the receipt of $1,453 25.

Resolutions of thanks to the Churches and citizens of Cartersville, for their hospitality and generosity, and to the various railroad companies, were unanimously adopted.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, The colored Ministers of Georgia, so far as they have spoken, have earnestly desired the aid of our Brethren in fitting them for future usefulness as preachers and pastors; and

Whereas, Their want of education and their ignorance of the Scriptures hinder their efficiency as shepherds of their large flocks; therefore,

Resolved, That we commend the subject of educating the colored Ministers of our denomination as one of commanding importance, and that we will rejoice in every scriptural effort put forth for this purpose.

One thousand copies of the minutes were ordered to be printed, and the clerk paid $75 for his services.

A resolution was adopted to appoint a committee of seven to devise a plan, select a site, and proceed to raise funds for the establishment of a Baptist Orphans' Home in Georgia.

Interesting remarks were made by D. E. Butler, W. M. James, J. Barrow, E. W. Warren, J. H. DeVotie, W. T. Brantley, H. C. Hornady, M. J. Wellborn and T. B. Cooper.

The following were appointed as the committee: J. H. James, J. B. Gordon, C. Peeples, W. T. Brantley, A. K. Seago, J. E. Brown, J. H. Colloway.

On motion, E. W. Warren was added to the committee.

The Convention then adjourned sine die, after singing, "Shall We Gather at the River," and prayer by Rev. N. M. Crawford.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA—Morning Session—April 24, 871.—After the delivery of opinions, the case of Robt. Stafford, plaintiff in error, vs. Hugh W. Mercer and Francis L. Gue, defendants in error, trespass, from Chatham, was called.

Andrew Sloan for plaintiffs in error.

Thos. E. Loyd, Hartridge & Chisolm, for defendants in error.

Pending argument of Colonel Julian Hartridge for defendants in error, the Court adjourned till 3 o'clock P. M.

☞ Written on the door of an old Boston church, the basement of which was used as a liquor warehouse:

There's a spirit above,
And a spirit below,
A spirit of love,
And a spirit of woe.
The spirit above is the spirit divine,
And the spirit below is the spirit of wine.

☞ A baby was found at Indianapolis, and the ladies who took the job of rearing it, thought it would be proper to give the child a respectable name, so they named it after a bachelor of the city, of great respectability, and a member of the church. He is the maddest man you ever saw. He says and swears that it is no such thing.

Alabama.

Dr. George D. Herbert, of Greenville, died on the 16th inst., aged 71 years.

The death of Mr. John M. Molette, of Dallas county, which has been expected for some time past, occurred the 17th instant.

Rev. Mr. Needham, from Ireland, has been preaching a series of sermons at the first Baptist Church, Montgomery.

John McGruder, one of the Selma rioters of November 5th, ventured into town the other day and was captured by the sheriff.

The Greensboro Beacon, just before the heavy rains, says: Cotton planting has been going on vigorously for a week or ten days past, and will, we suppose, be gotten through with in a few days.

The storm of Thursday night, the 14th inst., was very severe at Eufaula, which place it struck in its full force about 12 o'clock.

On the 11th inst., the family of Captain J. Bonham, of Montgomery county, and some visitors were poisoned, on successive days, either in the coffee or the bread. No fatal results occurred, and the origin of the matter is difficult to ascertain.

A HEAVY BILL.—The President, just before he left, ordered the accounting officers of the Treasury to pay the United States Marshal's office, in New York, fifty-seven thousand dollars for the expenses of the enforcement act or Federal election law in New York last fall. This is only about half of the actual expenses incurred in using the army and navy.

☞ Hiram powers is reported to be near Rome, finishing "Eve After the Fall." If some other powers had "finished" that sinful woman before the Fall, it would have saved Hiram and the rest of us a good deal of work.—Courier-Journal.

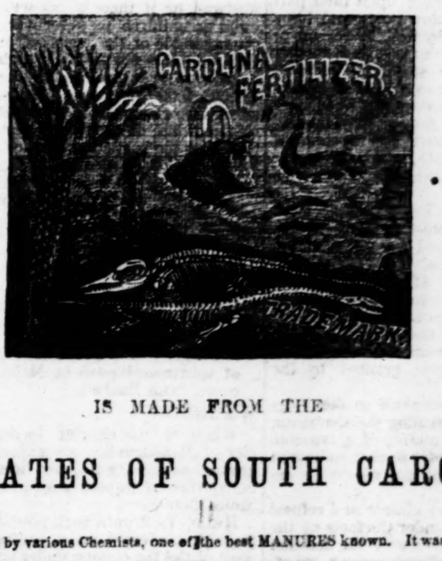
THE CAROLINA FERTILIZER!



IS MADE FROM THE

PHOSPHATES OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

AND is pronounced by various Chemists, one of the best MANURES known. It was extensively used in most of the Cotton-growing States last season, and in a great number of trials, in comparison with other leading Fertilizers, proved superior to every other.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA PHOSPHATES

Are remains of extinct land and sea animals, and possess qualities of the greatest value to the Agriculturist. Pamphlets containing description of this

REMARKABLE DEPOSIT,

With engravings of Fossils found in it, and testimonials proving the superiority of the Fertilizer, will be forwarded on application.

Extract from article in Rural Carolinian, February number, 1871, giving details of experiments with fifteen different Fertilizers:

"From the above experiments and their results, I almost reach some conclusions which may prove of interest to others.

"First—That Peruvian Guano, which has been considered the standard for comparison for all commercial Fertilizers, fails to produce as much cotton as a Fertilizer claiming to contain no ammonia at all.

"Second—That neither the Peruvian nor the unmixed Super-Phosphates produces so well as a combination of the two, or as a commercial Fertilizer containing both super-phosphate and ammonia, like the Carolina Fertilizer, which has produced better results for me than any other commercial Fertilizer.

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

I. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1871.

☞ Missouri is building narrow gauge Railroads.

☞ A first-class ticket to Europe and back costs $160 in gold.

☞ Experiments in cotton culture on the California coast, are proving very satisfactory. Cotton manufacturies are projected.

☞ The New York bonded warehouses have an immense stock of old prunes, of the 1868 crop, stored in them. The fruit is spoiled, and the importers responsible for the duty.

☞ Of the twenty-one members of the joint committee to inquire into the Ku-Klux outrages, eight are Democrats—six Representatives and two Senators. There will accordingly be two Democrats on each of the four sub-committees into which the joint committee will be divided.

England's Finances.

Judged by her finances, the condition of England is not satisfactory. Her receipts for the next year are estimated at $345,000,000. While her expenses will be $360,000,000. This shows a deficiency of $15,000,000. The deficiency last year was between two and three millions.

The Decoration To-day.

Thousands will go out to the cemetery this afternoon. Many, if not all the stores, will be closed, and the ladies and children will all, doubtless take out with them each a wreath, a bouquet, or at least a bunch of flowers. Let us all go. Let us lay the offerings of grateful hearts upon the graves of our dead. Rev. Dr. Wills, President of Oglethorpe University, delivers the address.

☞ The N. Y. Sun, which some time ago nominated Sumner as the Democratic candidate for President, now takes it back, for the reason that he supported the Ku-Klux bill. It thinks that eminent gabbler cannot now unite all parties. The Sun wisely says in reply to Mr. Sumner's bosh about the "centralism of liberty:"

Liberty can only be secured by law; and if we set aside the Constitution in the name of liberty in 1871, we may overthrow it in order to make a favorite candidate President by military power and a sham election in 1872.

The Anthracite Fields.

The Pittsburg Review says: The amount of anthracite coal yet in the earth is as follows, the area and thickness of the veins being accurately known:

	Square miles.	Depth of coal yards.	Tons.
Central coal fields	126	15	5,854,961,000
Southern coal fields	146	25	11,308,842,000
Northern coal fields	198	15	9,179,872,000
		—	26,343,675,000
Total	470
Deduct one-half waste in mining	..	..	13,171,837,500

Which leaves of markable coal, 13,171,837,500 tons or a deposits equal to an annual supply of 20,000,000 tons for 600 years.

Exports of Breadstuffs from San Francisco.

The San Francisco Bulletin presents the following statistics of the wheat and flour market exports of that port for the harvest year ended March 31st:

Exports of flour for 1869–70, 298,831 barrels valued at $1,407,908; 1870–71, 170,226, barrels, valued at $981,207.

Exports of wheat for 1869–70, 4,269,061 barrels, valued at $7,343,293; 1870–71, 3,517,617 barrels, valued at $7,002,783.

Showing the equivalent of 4,028,325 centals wheat, valued at $7,983,990, for the past nine months, against 5,196,144 centals wheat, valued at $8,751,171, for the same period in the previous harvest year. It will be observed that while our exports have been 1,168,000 centals less than they were in 1869–70, we have received within $767,000 of the same amount of money, which will go a long way towards compensating for decreased yield.

The crop prospects for 1871 are not encouraging, if we except a few favored districts, although the tone of the interior press is hopeful. It is useless to estimate the yield of the State at present; the farmers themselves admit this fact. In many localities where the fields are now thrifty and flourishing, the crops will prove entire failures unless two inches of rain fall within two months.

John Esten Cooke's Life of Robert E. Lee.

We have read this one of the many biographies of the great Southern Captain, and we have risen from the perusal both delighted and disappointed. Cooke has made a very readable book; one that interests from beginning to end; but it is incomplete, lacking the elaboration that should have been given to it. As far as it goes it is excellent. But it is deficient in its narration of Lee's early life, and in the general summary of Lee's character. It is a fine biography, but not the biography of the exalted Virginian, that the public want, and that will fill the exactions of Lee's character, genius, services, career and fame.

With this one lack of completeness and elaboration, our criticism ceases to censure and begins to approve. Cooke has a peculiarly lively graphic style of writing, and this work is in his best manner. There is a good deal of exhiliration in his paragraphs. He is never dull or prosaic. His sentences breathe fire and glow with vitality, no matter what the subject. This great theme has been one of love, and in many parts of the book his especial charms of style gleam with unusual brilliance. The description of battles affords a graphic writer a rare field for the display of fine descriptive powers Cooke has improved the opportunity. His account of Lee's career as a Confederate General is detailed and elaborate. No objection whatever can be made to this part of the work. It is full, generally accurate, ornate and glowing.

It seems that he informed General Lee of his purpose of writing the book, and had his sanction. Much new matter hitherto unprinted has been woven in. Many new and striking anecdotes and reminiscences of Lee are given, that add vastly to the entertainment of the work.

Take it altogether, it is a work that we are glad has been written, one that has interested us deeply, and that we would not be without.

It is only sold by subscription, and Mr. Newman is the agent who is canvassing for it.

SOMETHING OF A SACRIFICE.—It was at Admiral Washington's table that Dr. Johnson made that excellens reply to the poet Coxcomb, who absolutely baited him during dinner-time. "Pray, now," said he to the Doctor, "what would you give, old gentleman, to be as young as I am?" "Why, sir, I think," replied Johnson, "I would almost consent to be as foolish."

The Democratic Address.

The Washington Patriot, New York World, and Louisville Ledger and Courier indorse the address thoroughly. The Cincinnati Enquirer says it is tame. The New York Herald thinks it not quite up to the standard, but it shows that the Democratic leaders know what they are about. The New York Sun says it makes some capital points against Grant, but deals too much in generalities.

A Striking Commentary.

A singular fact showing the utter insincerity of the Radical party, which has been in session since the 4th of March, for the avowed purpose of legislating to secure the purity of the ballot and to prevent any interference with voters in the exercise of the elective franchise, is the discharge of several employés from the Government printing office in Washington, the day following the adjournment of Congress for having voted against the ring in that District, which has succeeded in securing the influence of President Grant in its support.

The Genius of Mendacity.

Radicalism may be fitly called the genius of mendacity.

Grant is gallivanting out West with Senator Morton. The latter person has undertaken the task of fixing up the Democratic platform for 1872. Of course the main plank is falsehood. Morton made a speech in Indianapolis, in which occurs the following paragraph:

> Mr. Stephens, in a recent letter, declared that the South could not and would not, accept the Republican adjustment of these issues as final, and as soon as the party in the North signifies its willingness to do so, it would cause a disruption between the North and South.

The latter part of the paragraph is a cool, wilful deliberate falsehood. Mr. Stephens never wrote any such thing, and Morton knows it.

Farher on, Morton used the following:

> In concluding his remarks he declared his belief that if the Democratic party came to power the Southern States would quietly seced with the sanction of the party. The people of the South did not believe the cause they had fought for was a lost cause, and still cherished the dream of a Confederacy. Jefferson Davis had so declared in a recent speech, and such was the hope indulged by all. They did not believe there would ever be another war to preserve the Union.

Mr. Davis said no such thing, and Mr. Morton knows that.

The pitiable feature of these falsehoods is that they are believed, and have the same effect as if they were true. It is the first time in this country's history that a political party has sought to fasten upon the opposite party a lie as its faith. Radicalism succeeded in the last election on such a false issue, and now seeks to try it again.

It behooves our people to fight this mendacious foe warily. Let us make no mistakes, and do nothing to help its mendacity.

Political Intolerance.

It has been an inveterate trick of the Radical party, for the last few years, to bother largely about the Democratic intolerance and persecution of Republicans for opinion's sake, in the South. Jeremiads have been thundered at us. Large investments in the thing have been made for political capital. It has been used as the scape-goat of reconstruction. Hot and heavy we have had it for this alleged piece of damning criminality. Repeated crucifixions have found repeated warrant in this stubborn Southern offense.

We of this sunny latitude will not be likely to soon forget the merry jig of continued reconstruction that we have danced, principally as a penalty, for this false accusation of intolerance to Republican views.

We have a case in point, showing that the Radicals themselves are not angels in this line.

One O. S. Winans, a Republican member of the New York Legislature, very much astonished his party by announcing his determination to vote henceforth with the Democracy. As the two parties were a tie in that body, and Mr. Winans defection gave the Democrats the majority, the Radicals raised a huge howl. They charged Winans with bribery. They specified his price as $65,000. Greeley got virtuous and cursed like a trooper. Winans denied the bribery, and vindicated his honesty. But the thing hurt. Radical wrath by the bottle was uncorked on the sconce of the luckless Winans.

The last ebullition of rage was the following, which will do well for the fiercest Ku-Klux, and which presents just about as neat a specimen of unadulterated intolerance and savage proscription as could be furnished, even to order:

> "O. S. Winans, Member from the Second District, Chautauqua county, Assembly Chamber, Albany, New York:
>
> "O. S. WINANS: We send you a copy of the Bible and a strong rope. Ask your friends (if you have any) to assist you. Should you return to Dunkirk, we will try and have you viewed from the standpoint you deserve.
>
> "REPUBLICANS OF WESTERN NEW YORK."

DECISIONS
—OF THE—
SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.

Delivered at Atlanta, Tuesday, April 25, 1871.

[REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION, BY N. J. HAMMOND, SUPREME COURT REPORTER.]

Robert J. Wynn vs. The Georgia Railroad and Banking Company. Case, from Morgan.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

A. brought his action against a railroad company for damages near a public crossing, which resulted in the death of his wife, and averred negligence upon their part in their failure to erect blow-posts, and blow the whistle as required by law, by reason of which the accident occurred; and, further averred, the loss of the society of his said wife, and her aid and management of his domestic affairs during the time she lived after such accident, and his expenditures of money, as well as the injuries sustained by himself and family by her death, and a demurrer was filed to the declaration upon two grounds:

1. There was no liability as the accident was not the result of collision.
2. That the husband had no right of action for the death of his wife. The Court overruled the demurrer, and afterwards refused, on request, to give the principles of the same in charge, and the case proceeded to the jury. The jury found for the plaintiff $7,000 damages, whereupon a motion was made for a new trial, which was granted by the court.

HELD, First, That inasmuch as the judgment of the court overruling the demurrer, was made the subject matter of a separate bill of exceptions, we refer to that judgment of the court, and will not here repeat the decision.

HELD, again, That the charge and refusal to charge by the court, under the facts of the case, was error, and, in view of the decision made by the court upon the demurrer, we affirm the judgment of the court below granting a new trial.

Judgment affirmed.

Thomas G. Lawson, Reese & Reese, for plaintiff in error.

A. G. & F. C. Foster, for defendant.

Frank Loyd and James Ward vs. The State of Georgia. Burglary, from Chatham.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

Where an indictment for burglary, charged the parties with being accessories before the fact, and several witnesses were introduced who testified to the finding of the goods stolen in the posession of such parties, there being no evidence that they concealed the crime from the magistrate and harbored, etc., the principal; and the Judge charged the jury, "If they found from the testimony that the defendants procured a burglary to be done, and instigated the perpetration by reward or hope thereof, and afterward received the goods, knowing them to be stolen, it would authorize them in finding the defendants guilty as accessories after the fact," and in the same connection, "If they found from the evidence that the defents concealed the crime or harbored the principal to prevent his arrest, then in contemplation of law, they were accessories after the fact," and a motion was made in arrest of judgment and for a new trial which was overruled by the court:

HELD, The court erred in its charge to the jury, and ought to have granted a new trial under the facts in this case.

Judgment reversed upon the ground that the court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial.

Hartridge & Chisolm, for plaintiff in error.

No appearance for the State.

E. W. Thrasher vs. Foster et al. Rule, from Morgan.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

Where, upon issue joined on a Sheriff's answer between two contesting judgments, claiming money raised by the sale of the property of defendant, it appears upon the trial that the judgment of Thrasher was dated 10th of September, 1868, and on the 12th of May, 1862, the fi. fa. issued therefrom had an entry by the Sheriff of costs received from the plaintiff; and it also appeared in 1867 he had petitioned the court for an order granting an alias fi. fa., which was granted, and with the proceedings in March, 1867, was placed upon the minutes of the Superior Court, and it further appeared at the time of the sale of the property a transcript of the record of judgment in January, 1868, was placed in the Sheriff's hands at the time of sale, and in March subsequent thereto the fi. fa. was placed in his hands, and upon the trial of such issue this judgment fi. fa. with the entries thereon were rejected by the court, on the ground that it was dormant, to which exception was then made, and the court, after the rejection of the other fi. fa., permitted the other contestant to take a verdict:

HELD, That it was error in the court to have permitted the verdict, under the facts in this case, as under his ruling rejecting the fi. fa., there was no issue to try, and nothing which invoked the judgment of the jury, and that his judgment was in effect final, and came before this Court properly by appeal.

HELD AGAIN, Under the facts in this case, and the former decisions of this Court, the court erred in holding the judgment to be dormant, the entry by the Sheriff, of costs received from the plaintiff, was sufficient to keep the judgment from becoming dormant and the petition for the issuing of an alias fi. fa. and the proceedings therein had, was evidence of the intent of such plaintiff that his judgment was subsisting within the provision of law, and that the court erred in holding the judgment to be dormant.

Judgment reversed upon the ground the court erred in holding the fi. fa. to be dormant under the facts in the case, and that a new trial should be granted.

Thrasher & Thrasher, Reese & Reese, for plaintiff in error.

A. G. & F. C. Foster, J. A. Billups, for defendant.

Edward A. Walker and wife vs. Littleberry Jackson, Trustee. Bill, etc., from Green.

McCAY, J.

Where the verdict of a jury in an equity case was directly contrary to the testimony of three witnesses, sworn on the trial, and directly contrary to the answer of the defendant in a matter responsive to the bill but was strongly supported by the admissions the defendant made in writing, before the suit was brought, and by his admissions under oath in giving in his taxes, for seven or eight years, and the Judge below granted a new trial:

HELD, That whilst this court is not exactly satisfied with the judgemont of the court below yet, as the case is one of granting, a new trial, so that the parties may have another hearing, we do not think, the discretion vested by law in the Judge of the Superior Court has been abused, and we will not therefore disturb his judgment.

I. L. Harris, Jas. S. Brown, Reese & Reese, for plaintiff in error.

M. W. Lewis, for defendant.

The Central Railroad and Banking Company vs. Jeremiah Dixon. Case, from Wilkinson.

McCAY, J.

When, in a suit against a railroad company for a physical injury done to the plaintiff by the running of its cars, it was in proof that the plaintiff had been injured by the starting of the cars as he was passing under them after dark, whilst they were temporarily stopped at Gordon, taking in wood and water, the point of his attempted passage not being a 'public crossing.

HELD, That the gross negligence and want of ordinary care on the part of the plaintiff, in thus undertaking to pass under the cars, brings him within section 2,921 of the Revised Code of this State, and that he cannot recover, even by proof, that the engineer did not give the usual signal for starting the train, and a verdict against the railroad for damages will be set aside as illegal.

W. K. DeGraffenreid for plaintiff in error.

Jas. C. Bowen for defendant.

The Georgia Railroad and Banking Company vs. Robert J. Wynn. Case, from Morgan.

WARNER, J.

An action was brought by the plaintiff against the defendant, to recover damages for the homicide of his wife, alleged to have been caused by the negligence of the defendant in the running of his engine and cars at the crossing of a public road over the defendant's railroad, and there was a special demurrer to the plaintiff's declaration, on the ground: 1st, because it is not alleged that the homicide for which damages are claimed, was caused by collision with the engine or cars of defendant. 2d, because a husband has no right, under the common law or statute law of Georgia, to maintain an action to recover damages for the homicide of his wife. The Court overruled the demurrer on both grounds, and the defendant excepted:

HELD, That the defendant is liable for an injury done to the person or property of another at a public crossing on his road by the running of his engines and cars, resulting from the negligence of his agents and servants to blow the whistle of his engine or locomotive, as required by the 742d section of the Code, although there is no actual collision of the engine and cars with the person or propety injured by such negligence, in all cases in which the plaintiff is entitled to sue for and recover damages under the law, for the alleged injury of which he complains, resulting from such negligence of the company, and that this ground of demurer was properly annulled.

HELD, ALSO, That by the common law, the husband could not maintain an action to recover damages for the homicide of his wife, and that by the provisions of the Code of this State authorizing damages to be recovered for physical injuries done by one person to another, the right to recover damages for a homicide is limited to a widow for the homicide of her husband, or if there is no widow, then the child or children may recover damages for the homicide of the husband, or parent, but the Code does not give the right to the husband to recover damages for the homicide of his wife; that if the Legislature had intended to have changed the common law rule on this question, it would have done so when declaring the particular class of persons, who were entitled to recover damages for homicide, in the 2920th section of the Code. The court below, therefore, erred in overruling the second ground of demurrer to the plaintiff's declaration.

Judgment reversed.

Billups & Brobston, A. G. Foster, for plaintiff in error.

Reese & Reese, T. G. Lawson, for defendant.

The Ordinary of Baldwin county vs. Retailers of spirituous liquors in Milledgeville. License, from Baldwin.

WARNER, J.

When by the charter incorporating the city of Milledgeville, no express power is granted to the city to grant license for retailing spirituous liquors within the corporate limits thereof:

HELD, That until such power shall be expressly conferred on the city, the Ordinary of the the county, under the general law of the State, has the power and authority to grant such license, but when an incorporated city has the power and authority expressly conferred by its charter and does grant it, and the fees therefore are as much as required by the general law of the State, then the Ordinary of the county cannot require a license from those who reside within the incorporated town or city for retailing spirituous liquors therein. The express grant to the incorporated town or city to grant the license to retailers of spirituous liquors within the corporate limits thereof, excludes the right of the Ordinary of the county to tax them under the general law of the State as retailers of spirituous liquors, when licensed by such incorporated town or city in the manner before stated, Code 1435, Sanders vs. Commissioners of Butler, 30th Ga. Rep. 679.

Judgment reversed.

Newman & Harrison, for plaintiff in error.

I. S. Harris, by the Reporter, for defendant.

Moses F. Foster vs. Charles M. Copeland. Injunction, from Greene.

WARNER, J.

Where a bill was filed by the complainant, praying for an injunction to restrain the sale of the land on which a church had been erected, and after hearing the parties, the Judge refused the injunction.

HELD, That on the statement of facts contained in the record, that this court will not control the discretion of the court below in refusing the injunction.

Judgment affirmed.

A. G. & F. C. Foster, J. Hill, for plaintiff in error.

Robinson & Branch, for defendant.

In 1843, there were only seven families living in Atlanta.

Col. G. W. Adair sold ten lots on Fair street, at the head of Hunter, on yesterday, at the rate of $2,000 per acre—good prices.

The Episcopalian Sabbath school will have a picnic at Stone Mountain to-morrow morning. They will leave on the regular passenger train at 7 A. M.

We hope that to-morrow will be a pleasant day for the picnic. Hope, however, is but fearful and fluttering, and evanescent at best.

We intended in this issue to notice the magnificent jewelry stock of Messrs. Sharp & Floyd, but we have not space to do justice to the subject, so wait for it until the next issue.

John Mayne, colored, was up yesterday under a charge of larceny of a few spoons. John was very indignant, and looked as stiff as one of Napoleon's old guard. He "came to time," however, and was fined $10.

Judge Smith's Court.—Dave Williams, colored, was up before the Judge yesterday, under a charge of larceny of a new coat of a customer in a barber shop. Dave was found guilty and bound

Col. W. P. Price, member of Congress from the 6th District, and Judge Junius Hillyer, of Athens, are in the city. We are glad to hear that Judge Hillyer intends coming to Atlanta to practice law.

Lost.—By Mrs. C. M. Simms, on Monday, the instant, between Keely's store and the Passenger Depot, a pocket-book, containing $25 00, some small change, and other papers. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office.

Mr. George Ingraham, from near Montgomery, while passing under the new depot, late yesterday afternoon, fell on the cross-ties and disfigured his nose and forehead. Well, beauty is a fading flower, and it is best not to be troubled with so fleeting a possession.

One-horse Reaper and Mower.—To-day, at 12 o'clock, the trial of this reaper will take place at Mr. Ormonds, on Washington street, on a field of grain. It is a Southern invention and a valuable one. It offers to poor men a valuable labor-saving machine.

Yesterday was unpleasant and disagreeable, cloudy and chilly early in the day, and threatening rain all day. Business dull, very light retail trade and the filling of small orders. But few persons from the country in the city, while the streets did not present a lively appearance.

James Moore, colored, made off with some calico from a store on Peters street, yesterday afternoon, but was captured and brought back. He confessed that his wife prompted him to the act. Ah! well, the Nazarine was tempted from his vow by a woman, and one lost Anthony from glory.

I. O. O. F.—The I. O. O. F., of this city, celebrate the anniversary of the American Order of Odd Fellowship, at the hall of Capitol Lodge No. 3, this afternoon and evening.

The Rebecca Degree will be conferred at 4 o'clock P. M. At night, Rev. C. W. Evans, Pastor of Trinity Church, will deliver an address.

Although the fence around the City Hall is but began, we are surprised how the appearance of things are being changed by it. When the fence is completed and painted; when the grounds are covered with grass, and shaded by trees; and when the hall is fixed up, the improvement to that part of the city will be very great.

Superior Court.—In the case of Richard Parks, charged with an assault and attempt to murder, defendant plead guilty to an assault, and the case was withdrawn from the jury.

The injunction case of Miss Clifton against the City Council was before the Court, when it was adjourned till this morning at 8 o'clock.

Fire.—About 2 o'clock A. M., yesterday, an alarm of fire was given, and the northern portion of the city was brilliantly illuminated. It turned out that the house of Mr. Ramsey, on Joy street, was on fire, and was totally consumed.

The above is from the Governor's organ, of Tuesday morning. We do not know what being "brilliantly illuminated" means. The building burned was the store house of Mr. Rumsey, located on Ivy street.

Twelve cases were disposed of by his Honor, Mayor Hammond, on yesterday. Six of the cases were for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, five for disorderly conduct and quarreling, and one for riding a mule on the sidewalk. Fines amounted to $15 and costs.

In the fines imposed by our Mayor, he follows the instruction of Douglas Jerrold, who said, "You must not make justice cheap: it would make her contemptible. Therefore, you must dignify her by expense, and make her glorious by the greatness of costs."

The Lecture.—The reputation of the Rev. Dr. Hicks preceded him to our city. He has added to it by several sermons he has delivered here, but last night we were surprised, delighted, fed, as we listened to his finished and eloquent lecture. A marked display of interest was early manifested by the audience, and this was followed by an intensity of listening that reluctantly loses a word, and such intellectual bracing as to grasp the full scope of the speaker, as is rarely witnessed now a-days.

The lecture made the brain and bosom glow with the luxurious beauty of the imagery of Dr. Hicks, as he presented before us the "Great Virginian."

Supreme Court of Georgia—Evening Session, April 25, 1871.—Argument of No. 2, Eastern Circuit was concluded.

No. 3 was argued. It is Symus Halloway vs. F. L. Brinkley. Attachment, from the City Court of Savannah.

Tompkins & Gerrard, by A. M. Sloan, for plaintiff in error.

Julian Hartridge, R. E. Lester, for defendant.

No. 4 is Jacob Godfrey et al. vs Robert D. Walker et al. Possessory warrant, from Chatham.

A. W. Stowe, for plaintiffs in error.

Alfred B. Smith, Hartridge & Chisolm, for defendants in error.

Pending the reading of the record, Court adjourned till 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

Strawberry Festival.—The ladies of the Loyd street Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a Strawberry Festival at the store under the Kimball House, on Decatur street, (the same room occupied for this purpose last week, by the ladies of Wesley Chapel) on Thursday evening next. Admission 25 cents.

A fine band of music will be in attendance.

We are requested to say that as many of the members and friends of the Loyd street Methodist Episcopal Church desire to attend the lecture, to be delivered by Rev. Dr. Hicks, on Thursday evening, the ladies of that church have decided to open their Strawberry Festival on that evening, at a later hour, that their friends may have the opportunity of patronizing both the lecture and Festival.

Mr. James Atkins, Secretary of the Street Railroad Meeting that was held on yesterday, very kindly furnished us with a full report of the meeting. We regret that our preoccupied space crowds it out.

Colonel Richard Peters was elected President of the company. G. W. Adair, Benjamin E. Crane, Louis Schofield, B. H. Broomhead and J. H. James were elected Directors. Mr. W. P. Orme was elected Secretary.

The following resolution was introduced with a few remarks and unanimously passed:

Whereas, sufficient stock for the West End line of the Atlanta Street Railroad has been subscribed by good and responsible parties, it being desirable that as little delay as possible should occur in pushing forward this important enterprise:

Resolved, That the President and Directors of this company be and the same are hereby directed to proceed without delay to build said line to West End, and equip the same for immediate use; and that they, for this purpose, call upon the stockholders for their amounts subscribed, in such proportions and at such times as the work, in the opinion of said President and Directors, may demand.

At a meeting of the "Ladies Church and Parsonage Society of Wesley Chapel," held on Monday afternoon, 24th instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are hereby tendered, to the following persons, to-wit:

To Mr. H. I. Kimball for the free use of the hall in which to hold our Strawberry Festival, on the 21st and 22d instant.

To Mr. Crittenden, Proprietor of the H. I. Kimball House, and to Mr. J. C. Kimball for numerous kind favors.

To Mr. W. K. Fox, furniture dealer, for the loan of chairs.

To the Atlanta Orchestra and String Band for delightful music, and to the public generally for their kindness and liberal patronage.

Resolved, That the Corresponding Secretary be requested to furnish a copy of these resolutions to each of the city papers, with a request to publish.

Mrs. W. T. Colquitt,
President L. C. P. S.

Ella Hammond, Corresponding Secretary.

The Baptist Convention that assembled at Cartersville was the largest held in this State for the past thirty years. For intellect, piety and christian zeal, the members of that convention stood unsurpassed. Its presiding officer, Rev. P. H. Mell, is acknowledged to have no superior in the knowledge of parliamentary law. He rules mildly, firmly and impartially. The opposers of a measure would much rather have him preside than take the floor.

The convention was harmonious and pleasant. The vexed question relative to the removal of Mercer University, has been settled. The litigation installed by the citizens of Penfield is to be withdrawn. The University is to go on at Macon without let or hindrance, and a school is to be established at Penfield, to be called Mercer High School. The convention took a firm and decided stand against conformity to the world—theater-going, dancing, drunkenness, gambling of all kinds. The delegates from Atlanta were active and efficient—Dr. Brantly, ex-Gov. Brown and W. M. Janes, Esq., taking prominent positions.

A State Sunday-school organization was perfected, and a committee appointed to start a Baptist Orphans' Home, from Atlantians.

The people of Cartersville met the delegates with open arms and warm hearts. Their hospitality was extended in unstinted measure and with a heartiness and good will unmistakeable. One of the brightest pages in the memory of those who attended the convention will be the kindness and generosity shown them by the citizens of Cartersville. Cartersville has established a reputation for hospitality that places her in the front rank. Esto perpetua.

Rev. Dr. Tucker and Rev. Dr. Wills have recently been appointed and ordained Bishops of their respective denominations. It happened in this wise: the directors of a certain railway company had under consideration the granting of tickets to ministers of the gospel. A resolution giving to ministers of good standing in their respective denominations while engaged in ministerial duty, tickets at half rates had been unanimously passed, when a director who was an Episcopalian, declared that he must have a free ticket for Bishop Beckwith. A Methodist Director amended by inserting one for Bishop Pierce. The President of the Board (a Baptist) remarked that the Baptists and Presbyterians had no regular Bishop, because all the ministers were Bishops, and he therefore, wanted free tickets for all Baptist and Presbyterian Divines. This the Board thought too much of a good thing, and consequently they said to the President, "We will authorize you to appoint and ordain a Bishop for the Baptists and Presbyterians." In accordance with this authority he appointed and ordained as Baptist Bishop, Rev. H. H. Tucker, and as Presbyterian Bishop, Rev. David Wills, and gave them free tickets accordingly. Vive la Bishops Tucker and Wills.

A member of the Convention got off several connundrums on the names of delegates, among them were: Who represents a green vine? Ivy! Who cuts smooth and clean? A Shaver! Who is a good worshipper? A Devotie! Who is good in music? A Toon! Who took after the oil and the wine? A Butter! What is indulging not to excess? A Horn-a-day! Who does execution at long range? A Cannon! Who keeps up the fire? Wood.

Old Living Ex-Congressmen.—Mr. Artemus Hale, who was a member of Congress from 1845 to 1849, was born in Wichendon, Massachusetts, October 20, 1783. Hon. Read! Read! Read!!! Health, beauty and happiness restored to modern womanhood, by using Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator or Woman's Best Friend.

☞ Sold by every Druggist in Charlotte, N. C., and by Druggists generally. ☜

We were kindly furnished the following extract from a letter to Dr. F. Scarr, Druggist, of this city:

Stanley County, N. C.

Dr. F. Scarr—Dear Sir: When in your town I asked you for something for my wife. You sold me a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, or Woman's Best Friend. Please put me up one dozen bottles of the same, as the one I got from you has got my wife finely well. You would not know her now; she has got stout and healthy and as red as a rose. As others are needing it please send me one dozen bottles. ***

Charlotte, N. C., March 23, 1871.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—Dear Sir: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Among a number of cases it has benefitted in this community, we mention that of a married lady. She was a sufferer from womb disease; had excessive and disagreeable flow of whites; was weak and languid. She was induced to try the Regulator, and after taking the second bottle she is sound and well. Her health and elasticity of spirits have returned, and she has gained many pounds in weight; feels altogether like a new being. Yours very respectfully,

Try It.—It is amusing that the feeble should totter, with uncertain steps, over the face of the earth, in danger every day of falling victims to the morbid influences by which we are all surrounded, when a tested and proven vegetable tonic, capable of endowing them with the vigor they need, is procurable in every city, town and settlement. It might reasonably be thought that after the twelve years' experience which the world has had of Hostetter's Bitters, all would know that its effect is to prevent disease.

At certain seasons the atmosphere is surcharged with the seeds of intermittents, remittents, rheumatism, pulmonary disorders, bilious complaints and the like. Persons whose nervous systems are relaxed are the first to succumb to these distempers. Brace up the physical energies, then, with this potential vegetable tonic. It is the most powerful recuperant which the botanic kingdom has ever yielded to patient research and experiment. Try it. The blindest discipline of the old medical dogmas will at least admit that a tonic and alterative, compounded of approved herbs, roots and barks can do no harm, while the testimony of thousands invites a trial of its virtues.

Vigor is the thing most needed in these cases as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affections, and Hostetter's Bitters is the safest, surest and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the officinal receipts and prescribed this harmless tonic as a preventive and cure for all cases of chills and fever.

Quantity vs. Quality.—Dooley's Yeast Powder stands preëminent in market as being the only Baking Powder that is free from injurious substances. Not only this, but each package contains the full quantity represented, while the quality is far superior to all others. Dooley's Yeast Powder will produce from twenty-five to fifty per cent. more good bread, rolls, biscuits, pastry, etc., than those of other manufacture, while it is always convenient to have in the house, and is reliable and economical. If you have not tried it, ask for it at your Grocer's, and take no other. ap23–d1w&w1t

If the testimony of aged persons who have tested the vivifying and solacing properties of LIPPMAN'S GREAT GERMAN BITTERS is worthy of credence, they are decidedly preferable to any of the unmedicated stimulants or combinations of drugs and alcohol ordinarily prescribed to cheer the spirits and strengthen the systems of persons of an advanced age. These Bitters produce no unnatural excitement, and these effects are at once soothing and strengthening, and they counteract, to a great degree, the depressing influence which the decay of the bodily energies has upon the animal spirits; it is, therefore, that it is acknowledged universally that Lippman's Bitters are cordial for the aged.

Lippman's Bitters are for sale by all druggists and dealers.

Description of the Work:

THE PARLOR ALBUM is doubtless the most extensive Art Gallery ever published and, by those who have examined the several portions of the work, it has been pronounced "The Climax of Beauty." Each volume contains 20 full page Chromo Lithographs, in Oil Colors, 40 full page Steel Engravings, 40 full page engravings on wood, and 260 pages of reading matter, descriptive of the illustrations, the whole making each volume about one-half as thick, and same sized pages, of Webster's largest Dictionary. Each volume is complete in itself and will be sold separately, if desired. Sold by Subscription, Only.

Vol. I. Is devoted to Wild American Birds.
Vol. II. Contains Wild American Animals.
Vol. III. American Domesticated Birds and Animals.
Vol. IV. Foreign Birds and Animals.
Vol. V. Fishes, Reptiles and insects.

This work will at once commend itself to the cultivated American people, and no library will, hereafter, be complete without this addition to its treasures; while as a parlor amusement it is unequaled by American publications.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—It is the Grand Duke Alexis, the third son of the Czar, who is coming.

Among the nominations which failed by the non action of the Senate, were Buck, appraiser of Merchandise, Mobile; Speed, Postmaster, Marion, Ala; Wakefield, Postmaster, New Iberia, La.

The Masons of Paris are endeavoring to compromise the troubles.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—The heavy frost on Saturday night, damaged grapes and peaches.

Wm. Marsh, engineer of the Belle of Alton, has been taken to New Orleans charged with the burning of the Belle.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, April 25.—Heavy frost. Ice an inch thick. Fruit damaged.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, April 25.—The Avalanche says two negroes charged with destroying part and stealing part of the papers from the Sheriff's office at Dresden, Miss., were hung by masked men.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 25.—A special from New Orleans, 9 o'clock last evening, says: The Bonnet Carre Crevasse is still extending, and twelve miles of the Jackson Railroad have been washed away. The President and engineer of the road set out to-night for the scene of disaster.

10:30 P. M.—The engineer in charge of the Bonnet Crevasse, sends the following dispatch: We have, of necessity, abandoned the idea of closing the crevasse, and are confining our efforts to checking its extension. I am satisfied our exertion in this direction, will be successful, and the further spread of this dreadful calamity avoided. I have used our tug to assist some of the distressed planters in removing their household furniture. Two other crevasses—one at Point Monoir, West of Baton Rouge, and one on the McDonough estate, below the city—are reported.

The Sun says that a gigantic fraud has been discovered, and asserts that one Victor Place, late French consul, with one Hector Chanviten and some prominent personages made a large amount illegally, from the French Government, by the exaction of commission and overcharges on arms and provisions purchased in this country. One operation in beef alone, as said by the Sun, netted the "ring" $30,000. The total contracts amounted to over $10,000,000, on which 2 per cent. commission was levied. The Sun adds that from 50 to 300 per cent. profit was charged on large amounts of guns purchased from the United States Government, and that a profit of $250,000 was made on thirty-five batteries of Napoleon guns alone. Place has been relieved by Mr. Bellaigne M. Bughos, late Consul at Charleston. A committee of inquiry has been ordered to investigate all the transactions.

FRANCE.

PARIS, April 24.—It is expected that suspension of hostilities did not take place to-day, but it is believed will commence to-morrow.

The Communists newspapers of to-day concentrate in an attack upon Thiers.

Placards upon the walls invites the "Friends of order" to be in readiness to avenge their brethren who was murdered in the recent butchery in Place Vendome.

VERSAILLES, April 24.—Fort Vallarien slightly cannonaded the Moillat gate of Paris to-day.

General Ducrat has resigned.

Not a Parallel Case.

On one of the marches of the Army of the Potomac through Virginia, a horse of a well-known chaplain of a New York regiment "played out," and was left at the side of the road, soon after which the dominie espied a fine looking animal grazing in a field near the road. It required but a few minutes' time to transfer the saddle, etc., to his back, and mounting him, he was riding out on the road, where he met a United States quartermaster, when the following colloquy ensued:

"Where are you going with that horse?"

"Going with him? Why, I'm going to ride him, of course," said the chaplain.

"But you don't mean to say that you're going to steal him, do you?"

"Certainly not; but my own horse has given out, and we are in the enemy's country, and—"

"Oh, that's very well, but my duty as an A. M. Q. compels me to take possession of him; besides, I don't think it looks very well for a chaplain to be stealing a horse, if his own has given out."

"But, my dear sir," said the chaplain, "don't you remember that on a certain occasion our Savior commanded one of His disciples to saddle and bring him an ass, that he might ride into Jerusalem?"

"Yes, I know all about that, but this isn't a parallel case, sir; you ain't our Savior, we're not going to Jerusalem, and that animal ain't a jackass, so you can get right down off his back, just as quick as you please."

The argument of the quartermaster was too powerful, and an unconditional surrender of the same was at once made, the poor parson having to jog along on foot as best he might.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU AND THE KU-KLUX-KLAN.—A friend of the editor of the Manchester (N. H.) Union, at present in the South, in a letter to the editor furnished him with the following startling Ku-Klux outrage in Georgia:

A little incident occurred in our town the other day which will illustrate the superstition and ignorance of the negro on this subject. An enterprising patent medicine agent in passing through the town had besmeared the fences and sidewalks with certain hieroglyphics in praise of his extraordinary medicine. The poor freedmen, being unable to interpret it, at once inferred that it was mysterious manifestation of the demon Ku-Klux. Their fears were at once aroused; a consultation was held, and after inflammatory remarks, it was decided to post guards throughout the town during the following nights, and be prepared at any moment for the approach of the heinous monster. The poor negroes have actully been foolish enough to watch while everybody else was asleep. This only shows how easily the negroes are misled, and how utterly groundless are the Ku-Klux stories.

☞ A correspondent of the New York Herald has had an interview with Governor Wilmot, of the British Possessions of New Brunswick. Among other things which he said the following is noticeable:

"I tell you again, if ever there was a growing feeling of annexation in the British Provinces, such unstatesmanlike politicians as General Grant and General Butler have delayed a quarter of a century, if, in fact, they have not destroyed it altogether and forever. We will let them know that we can stand on our own bottom. We are building up a good and profitable foreign trade, and can live without our good neighbors in the United States so long as they are victims of unprincipled politicians."

DID HE?—The following is published in an exchange as a "rich joke," and its richness will be apparent to all upon learning that Henry Pead is the editor of the Iowa County Herald: Upon a late electioneering tour he slept at a farm house with two others in the same bed, and the next morning the lady of the house inquired how they slept. "First-rate," answered one "I slept behind, Bill slept before, and Henry Pead in the middle." "Did he?" exclaimed the old lady.

☞ Signor Albites, the husband of M'me Gazzaniga, has formed the troupe which is to give us a brief opera season in May. It is thought that "Trovatore" will be brought out then, when Gazzaniga will assume her role of Azucena. She is stouter now than when she sang at the South before the war, but the splendid voice and impassioned style still place her far beyond new debutantes, with whom the old fire finds no place, because art and artifice and wonderful feats of vocalization strive to supply characteristics denied by nature.

☞ At the Washington carnival ball "there was no more beautiful woman present than Mrs. Scott-Siddons. She made a most lovely picture as she stood in animated conversation with Lady Thornton—dressed in white satin, with silver-wrought lace over-dress, looped with black velvet and scarlet geranium flowers, her dark hair flowing free."

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians. DAVID L. MOTT, M. D., Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant,
CAHS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1867—UDOLPHO WOLFE, ESQ., Present: Dear Sir—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 18 EXCHANGE PLACE, New York, Nov. 25, 1867.—Udolpho Wolfe, Esq.: Dear Sir—The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination, we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) ALEX. TRIPPEL, Chemist.

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL!

WHOLESALE DEPOT,
Northwest Cor. Fifth and Race Streets, Philadelphia.
JACOB SCHEETZ, Sole Prop'r.

IT is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt, and speedy remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Bowel Complaint, Dyspepsia, Lowness of Spirits, Faintings, Sick Stomach, Headache, etc. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes. As an indisputable evidence of its medical proprieties, we append a few of the many certificates in our possession.

CUMBERLAND IRON WORKS, TENN.,
October 12th, 1869.

Jacob Scheetz, M. D.—Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been having the chills for the last twelve months. I tried all medicines recommended to me for the disease, without receiving any benefit. Having heard Scheetz's Bitters highly spoken of, I procured a bottle, and finding some relief, I continued it until I am happy to say that I am completely well. I not only consider the Bitters a sovereign remedy for chills, but I believe, it a preventive, and cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted.

Yours very truly, MOLLIE HART.

PHILADELPHIA, February 17th, 1868.

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been intimately acquainted with Scheetz's Celebrated Bitter Cordial for the past four years, and have seen its effects in Dyspepsia, Nervous Diseases, Rheumatism, and all the various forms of general debility tending to decline, and from my knowledge of said bitters, I have no hesitation in prouonncing them the best general remedy for the above diseases that is known. You may use this in any way you desire.

WM. CLARK, M. D.,
No. 816 Market St., and N. E. Cor. 6th and Callowhill.

Mr. Jacob Scheetz—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to infrom you that after suffering for fifteen months with Chills and Fever, I was induced to use your justly celebrated Bitter Cordial, which effected a permanent cure, only used one half pint last August, and had not a chill since. You are at liberty to use this as you please.

ROSADALIS.

The Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro, Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes I have suffered for twenty years, with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.
